Section 5 – Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) Appointment of Director. Effective as of April 6, 2016, the Board of Directors expanded membership on the board from five directors to six directors. To fill the vacancy created by this expansion, also as of April 6, 2016, the Board appointed R. Rimmy Malhotra, age 40, as a director. The Board believes that Mr. Malhotra brings to the Company a high level of expertise and experience in finance and accounting, both through his management of investment funds and also through his extensive education. He currently serves as the Managing Member and Portfolio Manager for the Nicoya Fund LP, a private investment partnership. He joined Nicoya Capital, the general partner of the Nicoya Fund in 2013, after having served as portfolio manager of the Gratio Values Fund, a mutual fund registered under the Investment Act of 1940 from 2008 to 2013. Prior to this, he was an Investment Analyst at a New York based hedge fund. Mr. Malhotra earned an MBA in Finance from The Wharton School and a master's degree in International Relations from the University of Pennsylvania where he was a Lauder Fellow. Mr. Malhotra holds undergraduate degrees in Computer Science and Economics from Johns Hopkins University.

There have been no transactions between Mr. Malhotra and the Company during the prior fiscal year which would be required to be reported pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K. There are no family relationships between Mr. Malhotra and any officer or Director of the Company. There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Malhotra and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Malhotra was appointed as a Director.

Mr. Malhotra's compensation as a non-employee director will be determined by the Compensation Committee. Mr. Malhotra has not been appointed to serve on any Board committees.

Prior to joining the Board, Mr. Malhotra executed and there is currently in effect a "10b-5 plan" as prescribed by Rule 10b5-1(c)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, for the purchase of Command Center common shares.

Command Center Appoints Rimmy Malhotra to its Board of Directors

DENVER, Colorado – April 12, 2016 – Command Center, Inc. (OTCQB: CCNI), a national provider of on-demand and temporary staffing solutions, has appointed R. Rimmy Malhotra to its board of directors. The appointment increases the composition of the board from five members to six.

Presently, Mr. Malhotra serves as the managing member and portfolio manager for the Nicoya Fund LP, a private investment partnership. He earned an MBA in Finance from The Wharton School and a master's degree in International Relations from the University of Pennsylvania where he was a Lauder Fellow. Mr. Malhotra holds undergraduate degrees in Computer Science and Economics from Johns Hopkins University.

"We always look to add quality people to our organization, and Rimmy brings specific experience and knowledge to the board that will undoubtedly add value to the company and ultimately to our shareholders," said Command Center president and CEO, Bubba Sandford. "Rimmy understands the goals we want to accomplish here at Command Center, and he will work with the other board members to provide sound guidance to management where appropriate. We plan to continue to grow profitably, seek quality acquisitions, and repurchase our stock when it is undervalued. Management and the board are committed to this strategy."

Upon his appointment Mr. Malhotra commented, "I am delighted to be included in the future of Command Center. I believe they have done an admirable job turning the business around over the last three years. With the company's healthy balance sheet and profitable operations, it is now appropriate to bring a stronger focus on capital allocation. Moving forward, I believe this will be crucial in driving value for all shareholders."
