EXECUTIVE SEVERANCE AGREEMENT

This Executive Severance Agreement ("Agreement") is hereby entered into as of April 27, 2018 by and between ENSERVCO CORPORATION (the "Company") and AUSTIN PEITZ (the "Executive"), who are collectively referred to herein as the "Parties" and each as a "Party."

WHEREAS, Executive is employed as Senior Vice President of Field Operations of the Company pursuant to an Employment Agreement between the Parties entered into effective June 22, 2016 ("Employment Agreement"). The Employment Agreement provides for certain benefits and compensation to be paid to the Executive upon termination of his employment. The Company and the Executive have discussed termination of the Executive. The Executive and the Company desire to resolve all potential claims of the Executive under the Employment Agreement and the Executive is willing to resign his positions with the Company and its subsidiaries effective on April 27, 2018.

WHEREAS, Company desires to provide Executive with severance payments and benefits in recognition of Executive's service and contributions to the Company and to settle, fully and finally, all matters between them.

THEREFORE, in consideration of the terms and promises made in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Termination of Executive. Executive's employment with the Company, and its subsidiaries, shall terminate pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, his positions as Senior Vice President of Field Operations as well as from any officer or director position with any subsidiary of the Company, effective April 27, 2018 (the "Separation Date"). The parties intend and agree that such termination is involuntary and constitutes an "Involuntary Separation from Service" as defined in Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(n).

2. Executive's Compensation. In lieu of and in settlement of the amounts due to Executive under the Employment Agreement, the Company agrees to pay and provide to Executive the following amounts and benefits:

(a) Accrued Salary and Benefits. The Company shall pay Executive his base salary through the Separation Date and Executive hereby resigns as an officer of the Company and any other positions with its subsidiaries. In addition, on the Separation Date, the Executive shall be paid any remaining balance of the accrued and unpaid benefits, including unused vacation days and expense reimbursements which are then due and payable under the Employment Agreement. This payment shall be paid regardless of the Executive's right to revoke this Agreement under Section 14, below.

(b) Severance Benefits. If Executive does not exercise his right to revoke this Agreement under Section 14 below, Executive shall receive the following severance payments ("Severance Benefits"), subject to appropriate employer and employee withholding by the Company as contemplated in Section 3 below, all of such payments to be treated as "wages" as defined in C.R.S. § 8-4-101(14)(a) notwithstanding § 8-4-101(14)(b):

- (i) Payment to Executive of 12 months' of Base Salary as existing as of April 27, 2018 to be paid within five business days from the date hereof plus a bonus equal to the greater of (a) the Executive's most recent annual bonus or (b) six months of Base Salary commencing on the first payday following the Separation Date and certain Company property as described in Section 7(d) hereof (primarily a pickup truck); and
- (ii) Company will provide Executive with medical, dental and vision benefits of like amount and tenor as of the date hereof until the earlier of 12 months after April 27, 2018 or substantially similar coverage can be obtained by Executive through another employer. Executive shall use good faith, commercially reasonable best efforts to obtain such coverage in the event he obtains employment before the earlier of such time periods.

(c) Stock Options. All stock options relating to the common stock of the Company held by Executive will immediately vest on the Separation Date (in accordance with the agreements establishing such options) and Executive will have until 5:00 p.m. Mountain Time on July 26, 2018 to exercise his incentive stock options to the extent of 33,333 shares and until 5:00 p.m. Mountain Time on April 27, 2019 to exercise all of his other stock options, in each such case, in accordance with the applicable Option Agreements between the Parties.

(d) Change of Control. In the event of a Change of Control (as defined in the Employment Agreement), all unpaid obligations to be paid under paragraphs 2(a) or 2(b) will be payable to Executive immediately before the completion of such transaction, and such payment will be subject to the provisions of Section 3, below.

3. Tax Liability. The parties agree that the severance payments as described in Sections 2(a) and 2(b) are employee compensation for the purposes of the Internal Revenue Code, and the Company will make all appropriate employee and employer withholdings relating thereto and report the severance payment on IRS Form W-2. Company will have the right to deduct from any compensation payable to Executive under this Agreement all federal, state and local income taxes, social security taxes and such other mandatory deductions normally deducted from the Executive's compensation (that is, the Company will not deduct from Executive's compensation the employer's share of FICA, FUTA, Medicaid, etc.) as may now be in effect or may be enacted or required after the Effective Date of this Agreement.

4. Section 409A. The parties believe that this Agreement, and the manner and timing of payments, benefits and amounts to be deferred hereunder are exempt from the requirements and provisions of Section 409A of the Code pursuant to the exemptions thereunder, including, but not limited to the short term deferral and payment exemption under Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(4)(i) and/or the payment limitations applicable under Treasury Regulation § 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) applicable to involuntary terminations, or other applicable exemptions. Each installment payment of salary, compensation, bonuses or other amounts to Executive hereunder, vesting of stock options, or other benefit shall be treated as a separate payment for purposes of Section 409A of the Code and the exemptions thereunder and the parties intend that such exemptions apply to exempt all or as much of the payments to be made to Executive hereunder from Section 409A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the provision, time and manner of payment or distribution of all compensation and benefits provided by this Agreement that constitute nonqualified deferred compensation subject to and not exempted from the requirements of Section 409A of the Code ("Section 409A Deferred Compensation") shall be subject to, limited by and construed in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code and all regulations and other guidance promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to such Section (such Section, regulations and other guidance being referred to herein as "Section 409A"), including the following:

(a) Separation from Service. Payments and benefits constituting Section 409A Deferred Compensation otherwise payable or provided pursuant to Section 2(b) upon the Executive's termination of employment shall be paid or provided only at the time of a termination of the Executive's employment that constitutes a Separation from Service. For the purposes of this Agreement, a "Separation from Service" is a separation from service within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(h).

(b) Six-Month Delay. If, at the time of a Separation from Service of the Executive, the Executive is a "Specified Employee" within the meaning of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) (a "Specified Employee"), then any payments and benefits constituting Section 409A Deferred Compensation to be paid or provided pursuant to Section 2(b) upon the Separation from Service of the Executive shall be paid or provided commencing on the later of (i) the date that is six months after the date of such Separation from Service or, if earlier, the date of death of the Executive (in either case, the "Delayed Payment Date"), or (ii) the date or dates on which such Section 409A Deferred Compensation would otherwise be paid or provided in accordance with Section 2(a). All such amounts that would, but for this Section 4(b), become payable prior to the Delayed Payment Date shall be accumulated and paid on the Delayed Payment Date.

(c) Stock-Based Awards. The vesting of any stock-based compensation awards which constitute Section 409A Deferred Compensation and are held by the Executive, if the Executive is a Specified Employee, shall be accelerated in accordance with this Agreement to the extent applicable; provided, however, that the payment in settlement of any such awards shall occur on the Delayed Payment Date.

(d) Installments. Executive's right to receive any installment payments payable hereunder shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate payments and, accordingly, each such installment payment shall at all times be considered a separate and distinct payment for purposes of Section 409A.

(e) Reimbursements. To the extent that any reimbursements payable to Executive pursuant to this Agreement are subject to the provisions of Section 409A, such reimbursements shall be paid to Executive no later than December 31 of the year following the year in which the cost was incurred; the amount of expenses reimbursed in one year shall not affect the amount eligible for reimbursement in any subsequent year; and Executive's right to reimbursement under this Agreement will not be subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit.

5. Section 280G Safe Harbor Cap. If it shall be determined that any payment or distribution or any part thereof of any type to or for the benefit of Executive whether pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreement between Executive and the Company, or any person or entity that acquires ownership or effective control of the Company, or ownership of a substantial portion of the Company's assets (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code) whether paid or payable or distributed or distributable pursuant to the terms of the Agreement or any other agreement, (the "Total Payments"), is or will be subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the "Excise Tax"), then the Total Payments shall be reduced to the maximum amount that could be paid to Executive without giving rise to the Excise Tax (the "Safe Harbor Cap"), if the net after-tax payment to Executive after reducing Executive's Total Payments to the Safe Harbor Cap is greater than the net after-tax (including the Excise Tax) payment to Executive without such reduction.

The reduction of the amounts payable hereunder, if applicable, shall be made by reducing payments that trigger the excise tax, and such reductions will be first applied to the payment made pursuant to the Agreement and then to payments pursuant to any other agreements that are not subject to Section 409A of the Code, and finally to payments pursuant to any other agreements that are subject to Section 409A of the Code, provided that Executive shall have no ability to designate the order of such reductions. All mathematical determinations, and all determinations as to whether any of the Total Payments are "parachute payments" (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code), that are required to be made under this Section 5, including determinations as to whether the Total Payments to Executive shall be reduced to the Safe Harbor Cap and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determinations, shall be made by an accounting firm selected by the Company (the "Accounting Firm").

If the Accounting Firm determines that the Total Payments to Executive shall be reduced to the Safe Harbor Cap (the "Cutback Payment") and it is established pursuant to a final determination of a court or an Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") proceeding which has been finally and conclusively resolved, that the Cutback Payment is in excess of the limitations provided in this Section 5 (such excess amount hereinafter referred to as an "Excess Payment"), such Excess Payment shall be deemed for all purposes to be an overpayment to Executive made on the date such Executive received the Excess Payment. The Company or Executive, as applicable, shall notify the other within 30 days of its receipt of such final determination of the amount of the Excess Payment, along with a copy of the final determination, and Executive shall repay the Excess Payment amount to the Company within 30 days of such notification; provided, however, if Executive shall be required to pay an Excise Tax by reason of receiving such Excess Payment (regardless of the obligation to repay the Company), Executive shall provide the Company with written evidence of such requirement to pay an Excise Tax amount, and shall then be required to repay the Excess Payment reduced by such Excise Tax amount (or if already paid by Executive, the Company shall reimburse Executive within 10 days of proof of payment).

6. Disclosure. Executive will be given a reasonable opportunity to review and approve any public disclosure concerning his termination of employment with the Company in a Form 8-K, press release, or other manner.

7. Restrictive Covenants.

(a) Confidential Information. During Executive's employment and for a period of two years following the Separation Date, Executive will not, without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, use, divulge, disclose or make accessible to any other person, firm, partnership, corporation or other entity any Confidential Information pertaining to the business of the Company or any of its affiliates, except (a) while employed by, or providing consulting services to, the Company, in the business of and for the benefit of the Company, or (b) as required by law. Executive or his legal representatives, heirs or designated beneficiaries must return all Confidential Information within 15 days of the termination of Executive's employment for any reason. Executive acknowledges that this subsection (a) survives the termination of Executive's employment and is enforceable by the Company at any time as long as it remains in effect.

(b) Non-competition. For a period of nine (9) months following the Separation Date and in lieu of any similar provision in his Employment Agreement, Executive agrees that, without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors of the Company, he will not (i) engage in or have any direct interest in, as an employee, officer, director, agent, subcontractor, consultant, security holder, partner, creditor or otherwise, any business in direct competition with the Company other than as a 10% or less equity stakeholder; (ii) cause or attempt to cause any person who is, or was at any time during the nine months immediately preceding the termination of Executive, an employee of the Company to leave the employment of the Company; or (iii) solicit, divert or take away, or attempt to take away, the business or patronage of any client, customer or account, or prospective client, customer or account, of the Company. For purposes of this subsection, a business will be deemed to be in competition with the Company if it is in the business of providing services to oil and/or gas production companies similar to those provided by the Company at the time of Executive's resignation. Executive acknowledges that this subsection survives the termination of Executive's employment and is enforceable by the Company at any time as long as it remains in effect.

(i) Executive and the Company agree that this covenant not to compete is a reasonable covenant under the circumstances with respect to both scope and duration, and further agree that if in the opinion of any court of competent jurisdiction such restraint is not reasonable in any respect, such court will have the right, power and authority to excise or modify such provision or provisions of this covenant as to the court will appear not reasonable and to enforce the remainder of the covenant as so amended.

(ii) Executive agrees that any breach of the covenants contained in this subsection (b) would irreparably injure the Company. Accordingly, Executive agrees that the Company may, in addition to pursuing any other remedies it may have in law and equity, obtain an injunction, without the

(d) Company Property. Within seven days after the Separation Date, Executive agrees to return to the Company any and all records, files, notes, memoranda, reports, work product and similar items, and any manuals, drawings, sketches, plans, tape recordings, computer programs, disks, cassettes and other physical representations of any information, relating to the Company, or any of its affiliates, whether or not constituting Confidential Information. Executive also agrees to return to the Company any other property belonging to the Company no later than seven days after the Separation Date. Notwithstanding the preceding sentences, Executive may retain and will be assigned title to the pickup truck that he currently uses (2016 Dodge Ram 2500 4x4 Laramie 4dr Mega Cab 6.3 ft. SB Pickup, VIN 3C6UR5NL6GG125816). Executive acknowledges and agrees that retaining any copies of Confidential Information or other property belonging to the Company will be deemed to be the misappropriation of the property of the Company.

8. Non-Disparagement. The Executive and the Company (including persons speaking with the authority of the Company whether or not speaking on behalf of the Company) agree to represent the other Party in a positive light and not to disparage or in any way communicate to any person or entity any negative information or opinion concerning the Executive or the Company, its subsidiaries and affiliates, or any of their partners, members, family members, shareholders, officers, directors, executives or agents, or any of them. This provision shall not prohibit either Party from making any statements or taking any actions required by law, or reporting any actions or inactions either Party believes to be unlawful. This provision shall not be interpreted to require or encourage either Party to make any misrepresentations.

9. General Release. ENSERVCO Announces Departure of Senior Vice President of Field Operations Austin Peitz After 20-Year Career in Which the Company Has Grown to be a Leading National Operator

DENVER, CO – April 30, 2018 – ENSERVCO Corporation (NYSE American: ENSV), a diversified national provider of specialized well-site services to the domestic onshore conventional and unconventional oil and gas industries, today announced that Austin Peitz, co-founder and Senior Vice President of Field Operations, left the Company effective April 27, 2018, following a 20-year career in which he helped build ENSERVCO into a national, multi-service operator.

“As a co-founder who has been here from the beginning, it was a difficult decision for me to leave following 20 years of heading operations and working with some of the finest people and operators in our industry,” said Peitz. “Over the past few years, I took great pride in watching my colleagues come together to not only weather several industry downturns but to emerge as a stronger and more substantial organization at each turn. We are off to a great start in 2018 following a year in which activity levels picked across all our basins and revenue in our core service areas grew by double digits with improving profitability. We have also added some solid talent in the areas of operations, sales and marketing. Accordingly, I believe now is the right time for me to step away and seek out new challenges. I will continue to be a shareholder of ENSERVCO and am confident that the team we have assembled is well suited to take this company to the next level of growth and profitability.”

Ian Dickinson, CEO, added, “No one has been more important to the growth and success of ENSERVCO over the years than Austin Peitz. Through his tireless efforts and commitment to our customers, employees and shareholders, he has played a major role in establishing a platform for long-term success. Under his guidance, ENSERVCO grew from a single-location, single-service provider, to a public company with a diversified suite of high value services, a national footprint, a world class customer base and an outstanding reputation in the oilfield. The operations team Austin has built is second to none – the backbone of this company and the foundation for future growth. They are eager to continue to execute in the same tradition of excellence and culture of growth that Austin has established over the years. On behalf of our employees and the Board of Directors, I want to thank Austin for all he has accomplished over his many years of dedicated service. He will be greatly missed, and we wish him all the best in his future endeavors.”

Dickinson noted that, with Peitz’ departure, ENSERVCO has begun a search for a new Chief Operating Officer and expects to fill the position soon.
